What do you see in your future?

- Are you unsure about what you will do after high school?
- Do you feel overwhelmed, frustrated or confused about what to do?
- Do you feel that you need more information in order to make informed decisions?
- Would you like some assistance.

Self-Advocacy:
Knowing how to ask for what you need.

The Student Services Coordinator can:

- Help you explore options that meet your interests, needs and abilities.
- Help you pursue the training you need before you graduate.
- Provide you with information about options available to you after high school.
- Help you prepare for the transition from high school to adult life.
- Instruct you on how to be a self-advocate.
- Assist you in getting the assistance and services you are entitled to.
- Encourage self-determination and assist you in becoming as independent as you can be.
- Provide support and encouragement.
